Office of the Controller of Examinations

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CHAIRMAN / CHIEF EXAMINERS

1. The chairman of the respective board should convene the pre-valuation board meeting for the examiners on the first day (09:00 AM) to brief the guidelines / instructions about the valuation process.
2. Requested to refrain from accepting the offer if any of his / her family member or relative has written the examinations on the course which he / she is appointed as an examiner for valuation.
3. For every ten examiners, one chief examiner is appointed for central valuation.
4. Must distribute the answer scripts to the examiners based on their specialization and experience in handling those courses.
5. Allot 25 answer scripts for the examiners per session and subject to a maximum of 50 per day (2 sessions per day) and as per the guidelines prescribed by the office of the CoE. More than 50 answer scripts will not be issued in one lot to any examiner.
6. Discuss with the examiners about the comments (out of syllabus & any other discrepancies) on question papers received from the internal faculty members through HoD concerned and he/she has to take decisions in allotting the marks for the commented questions.
7. Check the quality of the answer key and verify whether the examiner has valued the answer script assigned to him/her based on the key if provided.
8. Verify whether the examiner has valued the answer scripts correctly and carefully without any omission, spending the full allotted time for the valuation effectively.
9. Must check all the failure scripts and also check randomly 10% of the other valued answer scripts and counter sign on the answer script.
10. Collect the claim bills from the examiners on the last day before the commencement of the afternoon session, verify it and submit immediately to the office.
11. The chairman should submit the statistics (No. of answer scripts received, valued and the range of the marks secured by the students) to the office of the CoE after the valuation is over.
12. Maintain a good rapport with the examiners during the time of valuation.
13. Requested to monitor the central valuation continuously.
14. Ensure that the final mark entry should be made through the software provided by the office of the CoE at the valuation centre itself.

Office of the Controller of Examinations

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE EXAMINERS

1. Not allowed to attend the valuation if relative or any other sponsored candidates have appeared in the said examination.
2. Requested to be in valuation hall at least 10 minutes before the commencement of central valuation.
3. The valuation starts at 09:00 AM in the FN session and ends at 12:30 PM and starts at 01:30 PM in the AN session and ends at 04:30 PM.
4. Avoid the usage of electronic gadgets inside the valuation hall.
5. 25 answer scripts are to be valued per session and use the red color ball point pen for valuation and blue / black pen for filling other details.
6. Exercise utmost care in valuation of answer booklets. It is to be ensured that all questions and sub divisions are valued and marks posted in the first page of the answer booklets and not on pages against answers. If answer to a particular question / subdivision does not deserve any marks, then zero marks against that question should be allotted.
7. Correct the question number if the candidates write wrong question / part / sub-part number before evaluating it.
8. Avoid corrections. Where correction becomes unavoidable, please put the signature towards the right / left of the corrections.
9. If there is any evidence of double handwriting, request for more marks than the deserved in any answer script and find the register number of candidate in answer script and immediately bring it to the notice of the CoE through board chairman.
10. No score should be awarded to a question where the answer is crossed even though the answer is correct to the extent of 100%. However, the matter should be reported immediately to the board chairman for further necessary action.
11. If the student has also attempted the choice question(s), that is also to be evaluated. The lowest marks should be circled and write "Extra" by the side and the highest awarded mark should be taken for totaling.
12. Enter the marks for each session in the software through data entry operators available in the valuation hall.
13. Do not use whiteners on the mark list and not overwrite / damage the correction part with multiple strikes. Single and gentle strike is allowed with the counter sign of the valuator.
14. At the end of each session of valuation, valued answer scripts and mark sheets duly signed by the examiners should be handed over to the chairman / chief examiner. Only after counter checking of the same by the chairman / chief examiner, the examiner should leave the hall.
